

have or has?

1. I just finished my homework.
2. We never met before.
3. Maria already called me.
4. Jane and Tom come in time.
5. They visited London this year.
6. The children just eaten the cake.
7. he shown you the town?
8. you heard the legend about ravens?
9. It been nice weather today.
10. Everybody liked the film, thank you.

Open the brackets:

1. Henry a very specific present today. (get)
2. They the box already. (open)
3. Clara the dishes yet. (not wash)
4. Tim and Tom never ice hockey.
5. Mr. Brown about the climate of Great Britain. (speak)
6. Sorry! I my homework for today! (not do)

Ask questions:

1. Sam has closed the door.
.....?
2. His parents have come home late.
.....?
3. Jack has watched this film three times!
.....?