

Modal Verb (Should) for Expectation

When you expect something to happen (although you are not completely, 100% certain), you can use should/shouldn't for the present or future.

- Examples:

- Can you please type up these notes?
It should only take about half an hour.
- I took my car to the mechanic yesterday and he said the problem would be fixed in a day - so my car should be ready by now.

Match to make a complete sentence:

1-The weather is clear,

I should finish the book I'm reading.

2-Within the next week,

over by eight o'clock.

3- The game should be so our flight shouldn't be delayed.
