

Unit 10 Review

1. Listen and number:

2. Read the sentences and complete them with the correct word:

ACTIVE	CHATTY	CREATIVE	GRUMPY	HARDWORKING	HELPFUL	KIND	SHY
--------	--------	----------	--------	-------------	---------	------	-----

Hamad likes talking to other people. He talks a lot!
Hamad is _____.

Alex studies every day. He wants to get good grades at school. Alex is _____.

Tim and Jenny love sports. They always play sports after school. Tim and Jenny are _____.

Lizzy never likes anything. There's always something wrong! Lizzy is _____.

Maria can draw and paint. She can write stories, too.
Maria is _____.

Let's ask Mike. He always answers our questions.
Mike is _____.

Ben never says bad things to people. He's always nice to people. Ben is _____.

Ana feels worried when she has to talk in class. Ana is _____.

3. Read and write was, were, is, or are.

Jack _____ nine last year. Now he _____ ten.

Ben's hair _____ long last year. Now it _____ short.

Tom and Ben _____ shy last year. They _____ not shy now.

My mom _____ chatty at school. She _____ chatty now, too!

It _____ cold this winter. It _____ cold last winter, too!

4. Read the text carefully and write T or F:

When Dad was nine years old, he was very active. He was always helpful and kind. Mom was chatty at school. She was sometimes a bit grumpy, too! Her hair was long and straight. Now, Mom and Dad look a bit different! Dad had curly hair, but he's bald now! And Mom has short hair now. It's shorter than mine!

- | | |
|-------------------------------|--|
| 1 Dad wasn't active. | 4 Mom's hair wasn't curly. |
| 2 Dad was grumpy. | 5 Dad has a lot of hair now. |
| 3 Mom was always grumpy. | 6 Mom's hair is longer than mine. |

5. Read the sentences carefully and match them:

It's windy and the leaves fall off the trees.

Jack lives in Australia and I live in England.

There's a lot of snow on the mountains.

There are a lot of flowers and there isn't any snow.

In the northern hemisphere, it's cold in the north.

The sun always shines, and it doesn't rain a lot.

- a We like fall. It's fun to play in the leaves.
- b In the southern hemisphere it's cold in the south.
- c Spring is Mom's favorite season.
- d My dad takes us skiing in the winter!
- e I can go to the beach and swim!
- f He has winter in July, and I have winter in January!