

Put the correct word into the sentence.

SENSITIVE	When children first learn to talk, there are some sounds that they find difficult to _____.
FLUENT	If an argument, set of ideas, or a plan is _____, it is clear and carefully considered, and each part of it connects or follows in a natural or reasonable way.
PERSUASIVE	When required, he could be an _____ speaker, but preferred talking to small groups.
HESITANT	I can make myself understood in French, but I'm not _____.
SUCCINCT	His text is at times repetitious and _____.
VAGUE	You seemed a bit _____ about recommending that restaurant - is something wrong with it?
RESERVED	He always plays with these awkward, _____ boys. That's not a good sign!
RESPONSIVE	Your arguments are very _____. I totally agree with you.
ARTICULATE	She is a very _____ young woman, who prefers to keep her thoughts to herself.
RAMBLING	The store is very _____ to the needs of its customers.
COHERENT	He acts like a tough guy, but he's really very _____ to criticism.
ELOQUENT	He gave a _____ overview of the expansion project.
INHIBITED	The instructions she left were _____ and difficult to follow.