2. THE NAME OF THE BOOK COMES TO ME

3. TRYING TO SET THINGS CLEAR

4. WORKING FOR MONEY

5. WRITING A BOOK

6. TOO EXPENSIVE FOR ME

7. THE DOUBTS ABOUT THE PROJECT

A. The history of this book is now quite complicated. So, every time I try to tell it I don't tell it right. And when finally, I tell it right, I'm misunderstood. So, the publication of this edition seemed like a good opportunity to clear up some facts about this book.

B. It started when I was traveling in Austria as a hitch hiker. I didn't buy a book 'Europe on Five Dollars a Day', because I didn't have as much money as that for travelling. So, I've borrowed from someone a very old copy of the 'Hitch Hiker's Guide to Europe' which suited me well.

C. After I spent a day in Innsbruck, I went out into the countryside and lay down in the field. The stars came out and I thought, it might be good if someone would write a 'Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy' as well. That's how the idea of this book was born.

D. Then I was addressed by someone from BBC with an idea of making the radio series on science fiction. And that's when the idea of this book popped up again in my mind. I think that the BBC's officials hesitated a lot about this project but they had little choice for it has been started already.

E. When the script was ready, we started the recording. Sometimes we were working with the sound engineers for weeks to produce a single sound effect. Everyone complained that we are stealing their studio time and this was absolutely true. The budget of the series has grown up twice by that time.

F. In the meantime I was also writing for other radio series and editing the scripts for TV series. Of course, it is very nice to be the author of some radio program and tell your friends that you are on the radio, but on the other hand that doesn't bring you a lot of money at once.

The Cat

Dwight Nelson has recently told a true story about the pastor of his church.

He had a kitten that climbed up a tree in his backyard and then was afraid to come down. The pastor coaxed, offered warm milk, etc. The kitty would not come down. The tree was not sturdy enough to climb, so the pastor decided that if he tied a rope to his car and drove away so that the tree bent down, he could then reach up and get the kitten. He did all this, checking his progress in the car frequently, then figured if he went just a little bit further, the tree would be bent sufficiently for him to reach the kitten. But as he moved a little further forward, the rope broke. The tree went «boing!» and the kitten instantly sailed through the air out of sight.

The pastor felt terrible. He walked all over the neighborhood asking people if they'd seen a little kitten. No. Nobody had seen a stray kitten. So he prayed, «Lord, I just commit this kitten to your keeping,» and went on about his business. A few days later he was at the grocery store and met one of his church members. He happened to look into her shopping cart and was amazed to see cat food. Now this woman was a cat hater and everyone knew it, so he asked her, «Why are you buying cat food when you hate cats so much?» She replied, «You won't believe this,» and told him how her little girl had been begging her for a cat, but she kept refusing. Then a few days before, the child had begged again, so the Mom finally told her little girl, «Well if God gives you a cat, I'll let you keep it.» (Can you see where this is heading?)

She told the pastor, «I watched my child go out in the yard, get on her knees and ask God for a cat. And really, Pastor, you won't believe this, but I saw it with my own eyes. A kitten suddenly came flying out of the blue sky with its paws outspread and landed right in front of her.» Never underestimate the Power of God and what may appear to be breaking on one end is answering prayer on another.
