

Arthropods

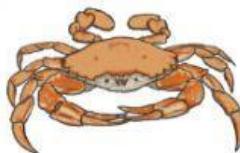

Directions: Answer the questions with the help of your science books.

1. Which group of invertebrates do crustaceans belong?

Mollusks

stinging cell

Crustaceans

2. Which is not a characteristics that are common to crustaceans.

two body sections

two abdomen

two pairs of antennae

use gills to breathe

reproduce by laying eggs in water

3. List four examples of crustaceans common to The Bahamas.

4. How do Bahamians derive income using crustaceans?

By selling them locally

By give them away.

5. Two ways why the crawfish/spiny lobster has a closed season.

They have a closed season in order for them to reproduce.

They have a closed season in order for them to marry.

To have them for future generations.

6. When is crawfish season in The Bahamas?

August 1st to October 31"

August 1st to March 31

Write the name under each crustacean.

