

The Superlative degree

161

1) Complete the chart. Write the superlative form of each word.

long
large important interesting big good

2) Complete the sentences. Use the superlative form of the words in the Word Bank.

colourful dry high interesting long wet

- a) The mountains are the Himalayas in Asia. Some of the Himalayas mountains are more than 7,315 kilometres high.
- b) Waialeale, Hawaii, is the place in the world. It gets 1,170 centimetres of rain in a year.
- c) One of the facts about the Ashmolean Museum, in Oxford, is that it is the oldest museum in the world.
- d) The bridge in Britain is the Humber Bridge. It is 1,450 metres long.
- e) The Sahara Desert is one of the places in the world. Some parts of it get only 2.5 centimetres of rain in a year.
- f) One of the most things in nature are the auroras. These are lines of green, red or purple lights in the sky.

3) Complete the brochure:

VISIT

THE HIGHLANDS OF SCOTLAND

The Highlands of Scotland are the (1.good) place to visit in Britain! The mountains are the (2.high) and the (3.beautiful), and the air is the (4.clean) in Scotland.

Stay at the Deer Inn. It is the (5.popular) hotel in the area and has the (6.large) number of rooms for guests.

It also serves the (7.delicious) breakfasts. For the (8.wonderful) time of your life, don't miss a holiday in the Highlands!

