WHAT DO YOUR CLOTHES SAY ABOUT YOU?

Do you ever look at someone and think, 'I bet he's a fun person,' or 'She's a creative person'? Well, you could be right! It seems our clothes say a lot about our personality.

Casual dressers love comfortable clothes. They live in jeans and T-shirt and they often wear track suits and trainers because they are sporty and energetic; they often go jogging or spend time in the gym. Casual dressers are usually relaxed, positive people and it's easy to spend time with them. They are often kind and generous with their time and money.

Robert Pattinson

Original dressers like clothes that make people look at them, like a crazy hat, a fun skirt or a mad jacket! They love having people around them. ²_____ They love to be the centre of attention. They are usually talented and creative people. Lady Gaga is one of the most original dressers in the world. She uses wigs, make-up and all kinds of materials such as feathers, beads, shells and even pieces of meat to make her clothes. Her costumes are usually outrageous!

Lady Gaga

Smart dressers like formal clothes such as suits. Smart clothes are well-designed and fit well; the material is good quality and never looks dirty. Smart dressers are usually clever, confident and busy people. They can be very ambitious - they want to be successful.

Emma Watson is a smart and stylish dresser. ³_____ She also designs and models clothes for the fair trade eco-fashion label, People Tree.

People Tree supports poorer farmers in Africa and India by buying organic materials from them to make their clothes.
