Written Composition – Writing a Paragraph [Drafting]

The diagram shows a paragraph with three parts labeled with boxes and arrows:

- TOPIC SENTENCE: A box pointing to the first sentence, "The moon is covered in craters." (The word "craters" is underlined).
- DETAIL SENTENCES: A box pointing to the middle sentences, "On the moon it is hot during the day, and cold at night. There are eight phases of the moon. Neil Armstrong was the first astronaut to walk on the moon. He did this on July 20, 1969." (The word "walk" is underlined).
- CONCLUDING SENTENCE: A box pointing to the last sentence, "There are many more facts about the moon." (The words "more facts" are underlined).

Put the sentences into the correct order to form a paragraph.

We run through the water and scream each time!
I play under the sprinkler with my brother.
At night, I play hide and seek with my friends.
I usually hide behind a big bush.
The warm weather allows me to play outside.
I love it when the weather is warm.
