Watch the video (Top 10 London Attractions) again and do the Drag & Drop exercise:

You can stand on the spot where Anne Boleyn, one of Henry VIII's 6 wives, lost her head.

You can see famous objects such as the Parthenon Sculptures and the Rosetta stone.

You can see it at Trafalgar Square.

You can enjoy amazing city views stretching 25 miles in every direction.

You can steer a ship into a port.

You can see animals from the past and the present, and watch out for the dinosaurs.

You can get up close and personal with celebrities and royalty.

You can see steam trains to space rockets.

You can see an art gallery that used to power the city.

You can immerse yourself in over 3000 years of fashion, art and design.

liveworksheets.com