

HEALTHIER SNACKS

At school, the children read about Mikaila Ulmer, a girl from Texas, USA that sells a healthier lemonade with honey and helps to save bees. She is young but she is a business woman. Now, Charlie and Sophie are at the school's canteen buying some snacks.

(En la escuela, los chicos leyeron sobre Mikaila Ulmer, una chica de Texas, USA que vende una limonada con miel que es más saludable y ayuda a salvar a las abejas. Ella es joven pero es una mujer de negocios. Ahora, Charlie y Sophie están en la cantina del colegio comprando bocadillos)

1 Listen and read. (Escucha y lee atentamente.)

Charlie: The story about Mikaila's lemonade is amazing.¹

Sophie: I know, but I'm hungry and thirsty now.

Charlie: Me too. Let's buy a snack.

Sophie: Which snack do you prefer?

Charlie: I'm not sure² – maybe³ a sandwich or maybe a chocolate bar.

Sophie: A sandwich is more expensive than a chocolate bar.

Charlie: You're right. But a sandwich is healthier. It's tastier⁴, too.

Sophie: It's true. Let's buy a sandwich then.

Charlie: OK. We can buy some lemonade, too.

1-sorprendente 2-seguro 3-quizá 4-comparativo de tasty: sabroso

2 Use these adjectives to compare the sandwich and the chocolate bar in Activity 1. Write comparative sentences. Remember the rules! (Usa estos adjetivos para comparar el sandwich y la barra de chocolate de la actividad 1. Escribe oraciones comparativas. ¡Recuerda las reglas!)

cheap expensive healthy tasty

Ejemplo: A sandwich is more expensive than a chocolate bar.

1- _____ (healthy)

2- _____ (tasty)

3- _____ (cheap)

u$ 4,50

u$ 2

3 Which do you prefer? Charlie asks Sophie about her preferences. Complete her answer using a comparative adjective. Use the most suitable adjective from the box and turn it into comparative adj. (¿Cuál prefieres? Charlie le pregunta a Sophie sobre sus preferencias. Completa su respuesta usando un adjetivo comparativo. Usa el adjetivo del cuadro que te parezca más adecuado y transformalo en adj. comparativo)

1-Do you prefer pizza or burgers?

I prefer pizza. Pizza is cheaper than burgers.

2-Do you prefer water or lemonade?

I prefer lemonade. _____

3-Do you prefer fruit or sweets?

I prefer fruit. _____

Healthy
Tasty
Cheap
Delicious