

SI A/B - 2020

NOVEMBER 4TH

Vocabulary

Feelings

1 Choose the correct option in italics.

- The team was cheerful / disappointed when they lost the match by one point.
- I was jealous / embarrassed when my brother got a new tennis racket and I didn't.
- Isabelle never lends me anything, not even a pencil! She's so serious / mean.
- Callum always sleeps with the light on, otherwise he feels afraid / miserable that something bad will happen.
- I felt so embarrassed / strange when I forgot the words I had to say in the play.
- I'm very fond / bored of my great-aunt Lily. She's so kind.
- It was the first time I had to play the piano in public, so I was feeling confident / nervous.
- Ethan felt satisfied / ashamed when his friend discovered he was lying.

2 Complete the sentences with an adjective from the box and a preposition. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

afraid angry ashamed bored crazy depressed pleased sure

- Poppy was her sister when she borrowed her best dress without asking.
- My cousin is spiders and runs away when he sees one.
- We were watching TV all afternoon, so we turned it off and went to the park.
- You should be your behaviour. It's terrible to upset someone like that!
- Charlie's parents were him when he won first prize.
- I don't enjoy football any more. I'm getting always being in the bottom team.
- Are you the time the train leaves? Just check it again.
- Jake is reggae music and listens to it all the time.

Adjectives and their opposites

3 Correct the adjectives in bold with an adjective from the box with the opposite meaning.

complicated fantastic funny generous miserable ordinary positive relaxed

- My brother is very mean. He always lets me borrow his things if I need them.
- I was feeling cheerful because I missed the party and I really wanted to go.
- Josh was so serious that I couldn't stop laughing.
- Jessie's instructions were so simple that I couldn't do the activity.
- The film was absolutely awful. I can't wait to see it again!
- I love Lucy. She has such a negative attitude to life, even when things go wrong.
- Lydia is feeling nervous now that she's on holiday.
- It was a very strange day – I got up, went to school, came home and went to bed, as usual.