

The First Thanksgiving

On Thanksgiving Day people have a big family dinner, decorate their houses, and watch

a) movies b) parades c) people

Many years ago, around 1620, a group of Englishmen called

a) pilgrims b) indians c) Native Americans arrived in America.

The a) spring b) winter c) summer was very cold.

a) Pilgrims b) Indians
c) Native Americans showed the pilgrims
how to grow plants.

Native Americans were the first people who lived in America, and they were friendly with the pilgrims. They showed the pilgrims how to grow a) potatoes b) pumpkins c) corn.

In the fall the pilgrims had a big harvest (a lot of food) like a) potatoes b) pumkins c) corn.

The pilgrims were very happy and invited their new friends, the Native Americans, to have a) breakfast b) lunch c) dinner with them.

The pilgrims were thankful for the new place to live, the food and new friends.

What are you thankful for?
