

First Conditional

1. Complete the sentence using the verb in brackets

- If I go to Paris next year, I the Eiffel Tower (visit)
- If I have time, I you (help)
- If you that wire, you will get a shock (touch)
- If you eat my chocolate that is in the fridge, you outside with the dog (sleep)
- If you take me to the mall, I you an ice cream (buy)
- If she to university, her parents won't be happy (not go)
- If it rains, we the trip (cancel)

2. Match the sentences

If you freeze water,
If it rains tomorrow,
If you study hard,
You will get well
If it doesn't rain tomorrow,
I'll give you a key

we'll go to the beach.
if you take the medicine.
you will pass the exam.
I'll take the car.
if I'm not at home.
it becomes solid.

3. Choose the correct option to make sentences

- I will come / come early if I will finish / finish my work.
- He will go / goes to the party if you will invite / invite him.
- She will make / makes more money if she will get / gets the job.
- You won't get / don't get a good job if you don't pass / won't pass.
- He will buy / buy a new car if he will get / gets a bonus.
- She will cook / cooks dinner if he won't bring / doesn't bring food.
- They will go / go to the beach if they will have / have time.
- I will take / take a taxi if it will rain / rains
- I won't go / don't go if you won't come / don't come with me.
- Mum will give / gives me a car if I will pass / pass the exam.