

Week 40

English Mastery

Primary 2

The Write Tribe

RECAP PART 1 TEST PREPARATION

EMOTIONAL ADJECTIVES
BODY ADJECTIVES
BODY LANGUAGE
VOCABULARY

PART 2

gave me two thumbs up

curled into a foetal position slam one's fist on the table paced around

wrap arms around self

bite one's fingernails

Describe a SAD character using body language and facial expressions. You are NOT ALLOWED to use the word SAD or its synonyms. Follow the example below

Eyes crinkling in joy, Jenny grinned from ear to ear. "Hurrah!" she cheered and gave me a two thumbs up. She twirled around in delight and pumped her fists high up in the air. She skipped towards the stage and let out a hearty chuckle while receiving her shiny golden trophy

A large empty rectangular box for writing a description of a sad character.

FACIAL EXPRESSIONS

tears streamed down her cheeks like a river eyes welled up

lips pouted

word/phrase	meaning
injection
stethoscope
prescription
thermometer
diagnosis

a needle used to administer medicine into the body	a device used to take your body temperature	a medical instrument used to hear someone's heart beat an official piece of paper filled out by a doctor with which you can get medicine from the pharmacy		Finding out what illness a patient might have by examining the symptoms

word/phrase	meaning
symptoms
tablets
temperature
runny nose
feeling under the weather

not feeling well	mucus being discharged out of the nose	intensity of heat present in an object or person something wrong with your body that is a sign of illness. Example: a high temperature is a symptom of fever.		powdered medicine usually shaped in a disc / pill

word/phrase	meaning
intimidate
a short fuse
stick your nose into something taunt
cat got your tongue

to insult or mock someone	to interfere	a short temper frighten someone to make them do what one wants		Can't you speak? Usually said to embarrass someone

word/phrase	meaning
confront
a taste of your own medicine picking on someone
face the music
complained

to challenge or oppose someone	give someone the same bad treatment they gave others	to make a report to someone of authority to receive consequences of one's bad actions		to bully someone