

Compound Sentence Activity

Instructions: Identify the sentence as SIMPLE or COMPOUND.

Example: Paul walked to the store, and he bought sugar.

COMPOUND

1. Portia must study, or she may fail the test. _____
2. Mark and Peter loves playing baseball. _____
3. Peter should eat his vegetables, but he dislikes broccoli. _____
4. We love video games, so we bought the new PlayStation. _____
5. The dogs were barking all night and scratching the door. _____
6. I don't enjoy watching television, nor do I enjoy playing outside. _____
7. I lay on the green park grass, watching the clouds float by. _____

Section 2

Create compound sentences below by using AND, BUT and SO. Each conjunction can only be used once. Remember your comma or it is INCORRECT!

Example:

Sam went to the mall. She bought new Nike sneakers.

Sam went to the mall, and she bought new Nike sneakers.

1. Dino is hungry. He made a snack.
2. Pick up the clothes. Take them to the laundry room.
3. I like peanuts. I cannot eat them because I am allergic.