

Use Google maps to look inside your national library and see if you can find:

Where your library is?

---

How old is it?

---

How can you get there?

---

When is it open?

---

Does it have a specific children's library?

---

How many people visit it each year?

---

How many kilometres of book space does it have?

---

How many staff work at the library?

---

