

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____

Characterization is the process by which the writer reveals the personality of a character.

Speech	What they say (What do they say to others? How do they speak?)
Thoughts	What they think (What can you learn from their private thoughts and feelings?)
Actions	What they do (What actions make them different? How do they behave?)
Appearance	What they look like (What are their physical characteristics? How do they dress?)
Effect on others	What others say about them (What is their effect on other people? How do others act around the character?)

STEP 1- Fill in the chart below.

Your character's name:

effect on others...

what they think...

what they say...

what they look like (put a quote in the template)

what they do...

Name _____

Date _____

Period _____

Characterization is the process by which the writer reveals the personality of a character.

Speech	What they say (What do they say to others? How do they speak?)
Thoughts	What they think (What can you learn from their private thoughts and feelings?)
Actions	What they do (What actions make them different? How do they behave?)
Appearance	What they look like (What are their physical characteristics? How do they dress?)
Effect on others	What others say about them (What is their effect on other people? How do others act around the character?)

STEP 1- Fill in the chart below.

Your character's name:

effect on others...

what they think...

what they say...

what they look like (put a quote in the template)

what they do...

