A Nice, Nice Story

The word 'nice' is very much an over-used adjective (describing word). See if you can replace the word 'nice' with more suitable adjectives to make the story more interesting.

One (nice) _____ sunny day, a (nice) _____ lady decided to take her (nice) _____ little dog for a (nice) _____ long walk.

She paused for a moment to sniff the (nice) _____ air and to enjoy the (nice) _____ sunshine. She looked happily at her (nice) _____ little garden with all its (nice) _____ flowers, before walking with her dog to her (nicely) _____ painted front gate.

In the road she met her (nice) _____ neighbour, Mr Smith, who was also taking his (nice) _____ little puppy for a walk.

"Good morning, Mrs Jones! Shall we have a (nice) _____ little stroll together?" suggested the (nice) _____ man

"That would be (nice) _____agreed Mrs Jones. "Isn't the weather (nice) _____ today, Mr Smith?"

"It certainly is!" agreed Mr Smith (nicely) _____. Have you met our (nice) _____ new neighbours yet, Mrs Jones?"

"Yes," said Mrs Jones with a (nice) _____ smile. "They are very (nice) _____ and they have a (nice) _____ little baby girl.

"How (nice)!" _____ exclaimed Mr Smith. "It makes such a difference to have (nice) _____ neighbours, doesn't it?"

"Oh yes! It certainly does!" agreed Mrs Jones. "Well, goodbye, Mr Smith. "It has been (nice) _____ talking to you!"

"Indeed it has!" said Mr Smith. "Have a (nice) _____ day, Mrs Jones!"

liveworksheets.com

Words to help you:

Weather: fine, bright, lovely, glorious, beautiful, warm, golden (sunshine)

People: kind, agreeable, friendly, pleasant, lovely, delightful, charming, polite, cheerful, happy, delightful

Garden or flowers: pretty, beautiful, colourful, lovely

Adverbs: neatly, pleasantly, kindly, graciously, politely, cheerfully, happily

Walk or stroll: good, pleasant, enjoyable

Smile: happy, cheerful, lovely

Animals or children: dear, cute, lovely, gorgeous, beautiful, delightful

Gate: neatly, freshly, beautifully (painted)

Day: (have a…) lovely, wonderful, good

Other: wonderful, lovely

liveworksheets.com