

1. Write the layers of the geosphere. (2p)

2 Fill in the gaps.

The Earth's crust is divided into _____ crust (under the land) and _____ crust (under the ocean).

The shape of the crust forms the _____ of the Earth.

The Earth's crust changes due to the _____ it can be _____ or _____.

weathering

oceanic wind

relief continental rain

3 Answer the question.

What are rocks made up of?

_____.

4. Complete the table

rock	type of rock	how it is formed	uses
 granite	igneous
 clay			to make bricks
 slate		heat and pressure change the original rocks

5. Match the definition with each property of minerals

- a. This is the way an object reflects light, it can be shiny or dull
- b. It can be regular or irregular.
- c. It can be one or many different ones such as the quartz.
- d. This makes minerals difficult or easy to scratch.

1. Shape

2. Colour

3. Luster

4. Hardness

