Would you like some tea?

Use a / an with singular countable nouns

Use some in positive sentences with plural countable nouns and uncountable nouns

Use any in negative sentences and questions with plural countable nouns and uncountable nouns

1 Circle the uncountable noun in each group.

1. cherry butter sardine tomato
2. purse coin wallet money
3. sofa wardrobe furniture armchair
4. glue book pencil ruler
5. jar pot jam glass

2 Choose the correct word.

1. Can I have _____ more cake?
2. Are there _____ foreign students in your class?
3. Would you like _____ orange?
4. There aren't _____ eggs left. Could you get me _____?
5. We need _____ information about invertebrates for our biology project.
6. Ann had _____ terrible headache so I advised her to take _____ aspirin.
7. There's _____ soup left for you in the microwave oven.
8. To prepare the salad I need _____ bowl, _____ cheese, _____ red pepper, _____ corn, _____ cucumber and _____ ketchup.
9. We have _____ good news for you.
10. There weren't _____ people at the bus stop because the drivers were on strike.

3 Change the statements into the negative or question.

1. I've baked some biscuits for you.
   (x) _____
2. My brother found some money in the street yesterday.
   (?) _____
3. I know some words in German.
   (x) _____
4. There are some beautiful fountains in the park.
   (x) _____
5. Judy bought some trendy shoes last week.
   (?) _____

4 Complete with 'a/an', 'some' or 'any'.

1. I've seen ____ nice dress in the shop window.
2. They didn't bring ____ food to the party.
3. You shouldn't have ____ problems with understanding the article.
4. Would you like ____ apple juice?
5. Henry doesn't have ____ Italian dictionaries, but he has got ____ English one.
6. I need ____ help with the writing assignment.
7. We like U2. ____ of their songs are just brilliant.
8. There's ____ envelope and ____ stamps on the table.
9. Rob is ____ shy boy. He hasn't got ____ friends.

liveworksheets.com