Hello! My name is Miguel and I live in Santa Cecilia, Mexico with my great grandmother Coco and my parents. I want to tell you about "The Day of the Mexico celebrate "The day of the Dead", but other countries celebrate this holiday too. Day of the Dead is a two-day holiday that reunites the living and dead. Families create "ofrendas" (Offerings) to honor their departed family members that have passed. These altars are decorated with bright yellow marigold flowers, photos of the departed, and the favorite foods and drinks of the one being honored.

Look at these photos. My grandma and I are building a home altar. Mom, dad and my uncles are making shoes. Mamá Coco is drinking tea. We are preparing lots of food for great-great-grandparents Héctor and Imelda.
