

After reading the story, see if you can discover what pollution is and what causes it.

---

---

Is there a difference between smoke and smog and is one better than the other for the environment?

---

---

On the world map below label the world's most polluted cities. See if you can discover why they are so polluted.

