

Telling stories in the past

Listening activity

Before you listen

1) Match

___ pub	A. 	___ towards	B.
___ water's edge	C. 	___ grab	D.
___ fell asleep	E. 	___ scared	F.
___ blow	G. 	___ shout	H.
___ owl	I. 	___ disappear	J.
___ rub eyes	K. 	___ goblin	L.
___ splash	M. 	___ N ___ jump onto stairs	N.

2) Listen

3) Listen and put the events in order (1 -7)

	The strange creature disappeared.
	A goblin came out of the water.
	He fell asleep.
1	He had some beers in a local pub.
	Another man appeared.
	He went next to the river.
	He went home.

4) Listen again and choose TRUE (T) or FALSE (F).

Last night he was running home next to the river Thames.
He was sad and lonely and he'd just had some beers in the local pub.
He sat very close to the water's edge and fell asleep.
The wind was blowing and an owl hooted in a tree above the man.
He saw something was coming out of the water.
The green, strange and ugly thing grabbed his arm.
Suddenly, someone appeared and pointed a bright flash at the monster in the water.
When there is a full moon, "The Moon Goblins" disappear.
While he was trying to think about the situation, The Doctor said: "be careful of the full moon".
The scared man stood up and quickly walked to the police station.	