

Study Abroad

Pros and cons

Write the pros and cons of study abroad into the boxes.

Pros/pluses/advantages

Learn new language

Cons/minuses/disadvantages

Learn new language

Make new friends

Miss old friends

See new places

Try new food

Miss family

Can travel

Strange food

Difficult language

expensive

great experience

Lukáš and Marta answer the question: Why do you want to study abroad? Give three reasons why it is good. Give one reason why it is bad.

I can see new things abroad like monuments. I will miss friends. I can make new friends. I can learn a new language. I will miss my family.

There are three reasons why I want to study abroad. Firstly, you can learn new language. Secondly, you can make new friends. Thirdly, you can get away from your parents. However, I will miss my old friends.

Whose answer is clearer? Lukáš's or Marta's?

Why?

Marta says 'There are three reasons why I want to study abroad'.

This is a clear introduction.

Marta uses words like 'firstly, secondly, thirdly'. These words tell us:
This is a new point.

Marta uses 'however'. This tell us she will change from the pros to the cons.

Lukáš tell us a pro, then a con and then another pro.

Put the text in order.

Secondly, it will be difficult to study in English.

However, I can see lots of new places.

There are three reasons why I don't want to study abroad.

Firstly, I will miss my friends and family.

Thirdly, it can be very expensive.

Fill the gaps with the correct words.

There are three reasons why cats are better than dogs.

_____, I do not have to take my cat for a walk when it is cold.

_____, cats are more independent and clever than dogs.

_____, cats are cuter than dogs.

_____, my cat's toilet smells bad.

