BOX 3: GLOSSARY OF ETHICAL PRINCIPLES, TERMS AND VALUES (Harrison, 2006)
Term	Explanation
Advocacy	The active support of a client or patient so that they can make their own choices, achieved through ensuring accurate and honest information, and respect for the patient's integrity, dignity and privacy.
Autonomy	To be self-governing, or to be able to make decisions for oneself. People have the right to consent to or refuse involvement without being coerced, deceived or misled in any way.
Beneficence	A fundamental ethical concept where the intended aim is benefit or what is good for the well-being of the patient. Beneficence is the deliberate bringing about of positive actions or interventions.
Conflict of interest	A situation that can undermine a person's impartiality because of the possibility of a clash between their self-interest and their professional interests.
Deontology	The study of professional behaviour, or moral right or wrong, based on two main ethical approaches: an obligation to provide care that is good, right or correct.
Informed consent	Consents to proceed, people must give informed consent. Patients should receive sufficient knowledge of all relevant facts and factors, understand what they are being asked to do, and make a decision about whether to proceed.
Non-maleficence	Do not harm. A moral duty that individuals should do no harm or damage to others or persons, and to take prevention of actions that would cause harm to others.
