

|       |        |       |
|-------|--------|-------|
| Name: | Grade: | Date: |
|-------|--------|-------|

1. Which part of these plants do we eat?(fruit, stem, flower, leaf, root, seed)

|                                                                                    |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|   |   |   |
|                                                                                    |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |
|  |  |  |
|                                                                                    |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |

2. Fill in the blanks with the correct answer.

( water, flowers, eat, fruits, root )

- The part of the plant that grows under the soil is called
- Stem passes  and nutrients to other parts of a plant.
- We  the leaves of cabbage and lettuce.
- Tomato and brinjal are the  of the plant.
- Cauliflower and broccoli are the  that we eat.