Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: ____

What is Energy?

1. Refer to any time or every time that something happens or is true:

2. Systems or parts supply or use electricity:

3. Used when the object of a verb or preposition refers to the same person as the subject of the verb:

4. The result of the random motion of molecules; form of energy that is transferred between bodies as a result of their temperature difference:

5. Change to a liquid, usually because is being heated:

liveworksheets.com

6. The ability to do work; the power from sources such as electricity and coal that makes machines work or provides heat:

7. Deliberately touch someone or something with a lot of force, with your hand or an object held in your hand:

8. One of the types or sorts of a thing:

9. Changing, or causing to change, place or position; causing motion:

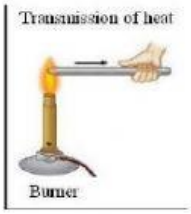

10. The capacity for doing work; the power from sources such as electricity and coal that makes machines work or provides heat:

11. The feeling of wanting to rest or sleep:

12. The process by which heat or electricity passes through or along something:

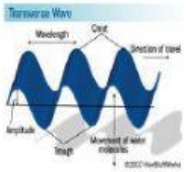

13. Bend the knees and push against the ground with the feet to move quickly upwards into the air:

14. Parts of a device that move when it is working, often using power from an engine or from electricity:

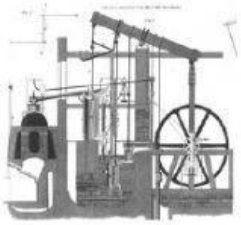

15. Form in which things such as sound, light, and radio signals travel:

16. Spend time doing enjoyable things, such as using toys and taking part in games:

17. Machine that uses energy to develop mechanical power; for transmitting motion to some other machine:

18. To undergo or cause to undergo combustion:

19. A piece of equipment which provides heat, either for cooking or for heating a room:

20. When something goes into an object and comes out of the other side:

21. Reach out for something and hold it:

liveworksheets.com

22. Action of moving through water by making movements with arms and legs:

23. Reaction between two or more substances, or relating to the substances that something consists of:

24. Move more quickly than walk:

liveworksheets.com