

Let's learn some idioms!

Match the Word pairs In bold to their definitions.

- a- Turn a lot in bed because you cannot sleep.
- b- In different places.
- c- Sometimes but not often.
- d- Taking everything into consideration.
- e- A member of one's family.
- f- Completely safe and without injury.
- g- Calm, not interrupted by problems or noise.
- h- Small things

- 1- How can I refuse to give him money when he's my own flesh and blood? -----
- 2- After hours of waiting for the rescue team, the climber arrived safe and sound.-----
- 3- A: "Where have you been today?"
B: "Oh, you know, here and there" ----
- 4- We collected various bits and pieces from my grandparents' life and presented it to them on their 50th wedding anniversary. ----
- 5- I had a terrible night; I kept tossing and turning in my bed until finally the sun came up. ----
- 6- There are a few things about my new job that irritate me, but by and large I'm grateful to have it. ----
- 7- I can't stand the constant noise from the construction workers; I need some peace and quiet.----
- 8- We don't see each other very often, but every now and again we'll meet up for a coffee. ----