

Dear Mrs. Olga!

I want to _____ everything, although I have _____. Yesterday I was absent from school as I was _____ and couldn't even talk. I should admit that I had _____, so I couldn't tell you about that.
Last time I passed my test _____ and I understand that it is awful. I am afraid, I should say, I _____, that I will not be able to improve my mark.

I am writing to ask you for help. Let me, please, write the test one more time. I promise, I'll try to do my best.

Yours, Anthony.

by the skin of my teeth
make no bones about
a frog in my throat

butterflies in my stomach
as sick as a dog
have my heart in my throat