Once upon a time, there lived a farmer and his three daughters. The family had a pretty garden. They grew many fruits and vegetables. One morning, a troll came into their garden. He ate lots of plants! After that, he came back everyday. The farmer and his daughters were very upset. So the three daughters came up with a plant. That night, they sprinkled hot pepper on all their plants. The next day, the troll was back. He picked a tomato and took a bite. Then he howled and ran away! The farmer and his daughters laughed and laughed. And they never, ever, saw the troll again.
