

Name_____

Unit 4 Farms

Old MacDonald Has a Farm

And a Moo, Moo Here

Cattle is a word that means bulls, cows, and calves together. We say “Her cattle herd is so big she has to buy more land.” The word is always cattle, never cattles.

A bull is male. A cow is female.

Their babies are calves.

one calf

two calves

We say “Look at the cute calf.”

We say “Look at those cute calves.”

The word _____ includes bulls, cows, and calves.

The parents of this calf are that _____ and this _____.

The twin _____ were shaky as they learned to walk.

