SENTENCE TRANSFORMATION

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence using the word given (in brackets). You must use between three and eight words, including the word given. Do not change the word given.

1 He still hasn't recovered from losing his job last year.
He still hasn't got _____ last year. (being)

2 Children and older people are much more prone to infection than young adults.
Children and older people _____ easily than young adults. (pick)

3 You must try to accept that you will never be famous!
You must _____ fact that you will never be famous. (terms)

4 No one really expected John to do so well in his exams.
Everyone _____ did so well in his exams.(taken)

5 Susan thinks that the colours are much too bright.
As _____ the colours are much too bright .(far)

6 Students must not enter the exam late, whatever the reason might be.
Under _____ late.(circumstances)

7 Do you think your father was offended by what I said?
Do you think _____ comments?(exception)

8 This part of the building can only be accessed by authorised staff.
Access to _____ authorised staff.(restricted)
9 Thomas never pays much attention to what his mother says.
Thomas doesn't ever _____ what his mother says. (notice)

10 But for the sea temperatures being unusually high, they would never have survived.
If it hadn't been for the _____ killed. (would)

11 I'm afraid I believed his story completely!
I regret to say that I _____ his story. (taken)

12 It's very unlikely that we will promote Ruth this year.
There is very little _____ being promoted this year. (chance)

13 I offered him the job but he refused it.
He _____ it down.(turned)

14 Giovanni's unwillingness to speak causes problems with English.

liveworksheets.com

SENTENCE TRANSFORMATION

Due to the fact that Giovanni is _____ with his English. (has)

15 I don't mind at all if Susan records my lecture.
I have _____ my lecture.(objection)

16 I had just started the new job when I got flu.
I _____ as I started the new job.(came)

liveworksheets.com