

verb passage

Charly is on holiday in Aspen with her family. She writes an email to her friend, Cameron.

Read the email.

Dear Lisa,

How are you? I'm so happy here in Aspen! It _____(be) wonderful. We _____(be) in a log cabin in a forest.

At this moment, my sister _____ (read) a magazine and I _____ (write) this email. Mom and Dad _____ (neg. play) chess. They _____ (watch) the snow through the window. It _____ (be) cloudy and very cold all the time.

Everyday, we _____ (get) up at about 10.00. Dad _____ (make) breakfast and we _____ (have) it next to the fireplace . My sister _____ (neg. eat) because she _____ (get) up late. We _____ (neg. go) skiing in the morning because it is always snowy but we usually _____ (walk) or _____ (run).

Last Saturday, we _____ (go) hiking to a famous peak. We _____ (see) beautiful places there and we _____ (take) lots of photographs. We _____ (neg-have) at a picnic because it _____ (be) too cold. We _____ (eat) at a restaurant. We _____ (have) warm soup, meat and hot chocolate for dessert. It _____ (be) a wonderful day.

I have to go now! I miss you a lot.

Love,

Charly.