Present, past, present perfect, past perfect
Fill in the correct tense

Philipp, Timothy and Sue enjoy playing together. Every afternoon, Sue (1) ..... (leave) her house and (2) ..... (run) across the street where Philipp and Timothy (3) ..... (live). She (4) ..... (often, not ring) the bell because the boys usually (5) ..... (wait) for her and quickly (6) ..... (open) the door. Philipp and Sue – who both (7) ..... (be) 12 years old - (8) ..... (be) friends since Sue (9) ..... (move) into the small house across the street two years ago. Timothy (10) ..... (not be) as old as them but he is Philipp's brother and so he always (11) ..... (accompany[1]) them.

What (12) ..... (they do) now? They (13) ..... (build) a snowman! Look, Timothy (14) ..... (make) a medium-sized snowball and Sue (15) ..... (carry) a small one. Philipp (16) ..... (already, finish) his and now he (17) ..... (wait) for the other two balls to form the snowman's body.

Last week, they (18) ..... (not play) outside because Philipp and Timothy (19) ..... (have) a terrible cold and they (20) ..... (stay) inside. Nevertheless, Sue (21) ..... (come) and (22) ..... (tell) Philipp what they had done in school that day. While Philipp and Sue (23) ..... (do) their homework, Timothy (24) ..... (sleep) on the couch. After they (25)..... (finish) their school work, they all (26) ..... (play) some board games together.

---

[1] to accompany sb. = to go with somebody

liveworksheets.com