

10 common food idioms

Join idioms with their meaning:

not my cup of tea

without style

in a nutshell

to spread your risks to butter someone up to love and adore someone as cool as a cucumber to be especially nice to someone a bad egg to not automatically believe something cheesy

you can't always have everything don't put all your eggs in one basket to be very relaxed and calm in a particular situation the apple of my eye basically, to summarise take something with a pinch of salt something is not to your taste have your cake and eat it someone who is often in trouble and is not to be trusted