

Drag 1:

having a great extent from one surface or side.

to become liquid, dissolve.

to put or place in a position of rest.

in the direction of.

toward

lay down

thick

melting

Drag 2:

a large flat mass of floating ice.

to die under water or other liquid of suffocation.

the dead body of an animal.

to become reduced.

carcass

ice floe

shrink

drown