

LET'S REVIEW THE STORIES!

THE PIED PIPER

The Pied Piper was a _____-looking man. He wore a tall, _____ hat, and a long _____ cape. He had a long, _____ in his hand. The Piper _____ to play a magic _____ in the town _____.

All the _____ came running out of the houses and the shops. The Piper _____ up and down the streets. Everywhere he went, the rats _____ him. The Pied Piper led them to the _____. The rats all _____ into the river and _____.

The people in the town _____ because they were _____. So the Piper went to talk to the _____ and asked him for the _____. But the Mayor _____ his _____ and _____ to pay the money. "Give me the money you _____, or I will play a new _____ you will not like", the Piper _____ him. But the Mayor still refused.

So the Pied Piper went to the _____ square and began to play a new tune on his _____. This time, all the _____ came out of the houses and followed the Piper out of the town. The People in _____ never saw their children again.

THE LION AND THE MOUSE

One day, the Lion was _____. The Mouse ran _____ the Lion's _____. The Lion _____ up, and was angry. He _____ the Mouse and opened his _____.

"Don't eat me!" the Mouse _____. "Please! I'm sorry. _____ me go, and maybe someday, I can _____ you in some way." The Lion _____. "How could you help me?" But he let the mouse go.

Some time later, the Mouse _____ the Lion _____ angrily. The Mouse _____ to see what was _____. The Lion was _____ in a _____.

The Mouse said, "Don't worry, I'll get you out of there." He began to _____ on the _____. He nibbled and nibbled, and finally, there was _____ in the net. The Lion _____ the hole. He was _____ again. "Thank you, Mouse." "You're _____, Lion. And let this be a _____ to you"

_____ FRIENDS CAN BE _____ FRIENDS.