

PROJECT CAN & COULD

✚ Reescribir oraciones de presente (can/can't) ha pasado (could/couldn't).

1. You can't cook a cake -> You couldn't (-) cook a cake.
2. She can swim -> She _____ (+) swim.
3. Can you dance? -> _____ (+) you dance?
4. He can sing in Korean -> He _____ (+) sing in Korean.
5. They can't eat the chicken -> crunchy. - They _____ (-) eat the chicken crunchy.

✚ Escribe una sección de cosas que antes podías hacer y que ahora no o viceversa.

1. I couldn't (-) cross the Street alone when I was 5 years old, but now I can(+).
2. I _____ (+) go to the bathroom in my diaper when I was a baby but now, I _____ (-)
3. I _____ (+) have my own cell phone and when I was a baby I _____ (-)
4. I _____ (-) lift weights when I was a baby but now I _____ (+).
5. I _____ (+) go to parties before the quarantine and now I _____ (-).

✚ Read the next history:

He is Jack.

Today he is 14 years old he can do many things from dancing to swimming to running, but when he was a child and was 5 years old, he could not do these things. When Jack was a child he had an accident where he broke his arm, so he could not write, he could not dress himself, he could not eat alone since he needed someone to help him, he could not bathe standing up, he needed the help of a chair, so that his cast would not get wet, he couldn't play on the grass with his friends because he felt uncomfortable, Jack needed help until 4 months passed and his arm recovered, he was able to play with his friends again and I also tried new things like dancing and paint. Jack realized that he was good at several things he had never tried to do, but thanks to his arm accident, he realized how talented he was. Today, 14-year-old Jack is one of the best painters at his Art Academy.

✚ Answer the following questions of the history.

1. Could Jack do thinks by yourself with the white plaster alone?

No, he couldn't(-).

2. When Jack was a child he could eat?

Yes, he _____(+).

3. Can Jack need help now to take a shower?

No, he _____(-).

4. When Jack had a broken arm he could play in the grass?

No, he _____(-).

5. Can Jack be now a best painter of the Academy of Art?

Yes, he _____(+).