

Me too and Me neither.

1. Write the definition of when do we have to use me too and me neither.

Me too

---

---

---

---

Me neither

---

---

---

---

2. Write me too or me neither based on the following sentences.

1. I like the movie.
2. She doesn't like pizza.
3. I am not tired.
4. Nikolas loves chocolate.
5. Sally enjoys the video.
6. I'm not very good at physics.
7. I can't speak Japanese.
8. I like to go to the club on Saturdays.

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

4) _____

5) _____

6) _____

7) _____

8) _____

3. Fill the blanks with “me too” or “me neither”.

1. A: I like reading books.

B: _____

2. A: I don't know him.

B: _____

3. A: I want to be an actor in the future.

B: _____

4. A: We can't swim in the sea very well.

B: _____

5. A: We will stay at home tomorrow.

B: _____

6. A: Nikolas and I didn't go to the theater yesterday.

B: _____

7. A: I really enjoy to learn English.

B: _____