

THE NARRATIVE PARAGRAPH

CHOOSING A NARRATE TOPIC
(PREWRITING)

THE B.M.E. MODEL

Source: In the Write Direction by Dr. Sharmane C. Miller

CHOICES

Ms. S. Burrows

Before you begin writing a narrative paragraph or essay, search for a topic to write about. The easiest way to do this is to look for a topic that interests you. You will usually be assigned a general topic from which you can choose to write about a true or a made up experience.

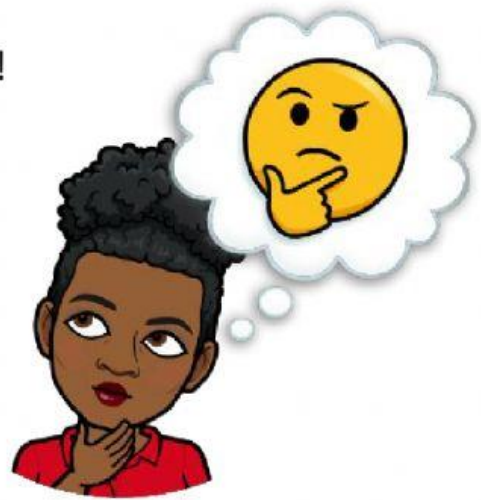

Once you have a general topic, all you need to do is narrow it down. One strategy to help you do this is to use a topic chart. The sample topic chart below lists three specific experiences in the first column, and a sequence of related events are listed in the second column.

An Unforgettable Day	Details
My bicycle accident	▪ Met friends in the park ▪ Rode into a busy area ▪ Fell in the road & was injured
✓ The day I caught a shark	▪ Rode in a boat to the ocean with dad ▪ Dove 200 ft deep without any gear ▪ Caught my first shark with a spare
Winning a competition	▪ Performed my talent ▪ Finalists called to the stage ▪ Winners announced & awards given

After reviewing the ideas listed, the next step would be to choose the one that interests you the most. In the above example, a check mark is placed next to the one a writer selects.

NOW, IT IS YOUR TURN!

Instructions: Create a topic chart to show 3 eventful days that you may have had. Be sure to list 3 details for each. Then put a check mark next to the one that interests you most.

An Unforgettable Day		Details
☐		1. 2. 3.
☐		1. 2. 3.
☐		1. 2. 3.