14th February

Dear Ms Simpson,

I am writing in response to your advertisement in The Stoke Times. I would like to apply for the job which you advertised in this newspaper on 10th February.

I enclose a CV with information about myself, including education and work experience. As you can see, I have experience of working with children and I also think that I am caring, patient and very hard-working.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Diana Huxley

✎ WRITING BANK

Useful expressions and conventions in formal letters.

- In formal letters, we write our address and the date in the top, right-hand corner.
- We write Mr for men, Mrs for married women and Ms for women when we do not make any distinction if they are married or not.
- We can use the phrase I look forward to hearing from you at the end of formal letters.
- When we know the name of the person we are writing to, we end the letter Yours sincerely.
- We do not usually use contractions in formal letters. For example, we would write I would like not I'd like.

Read the writing bank and the models of an application letter and a CV to write a letter of application and your CV to apply for the job at the fast-food restaurant and:

- State which job you are applying for
- Say what experience you have
- Describe your personal qualities
- End your letter
