Read the following passage and UNDERLINE the correct word to complete it.

Studying in a foreign country can be exciting. It can be difficult too, especially if the culture is very different from your own. (1. However / In addition), there are often surprises, even if the culture is very similar. When Megan, a British student, first arrived here in the United States she knew that (2. Americans / Americas) ate their food with a knife and fork. 'But they don't use the knife and fork like we do,' says Megan. 'In Britain we eat with the fork in the left hand and the knife in the right hand. (3. Likewise / Whereas) Americans often just use a fork in the right hand.'

Megan is also surprised that Americans tip a lot more than the British (4. do / does). 'We never tip a waiter just for a cup of coffee, but Americans tip 15 per cent. The accents can be so different, too! I'm slowly getting used to everything.'

Read the following passage and choose the best answer for each of the following questions.

Over the last few years, the use of the internet has been increasing dramatically in French schools, offices and homes and this trend continues to grow. Who would have imagined, even in the last decade, that we would be able to stay in touch with our friends, colleagues and clients around the world simply through the click of a mouse or modem? There is no doubt, like any invention, that the Internet can be used for good and bad but it is here to stay and has revolutionized the way we communicate.

In the world of business, no organization can be competitive unless it has access to the Internet. It has become essential to advertise products and service in this way and increasing number of companies are using this opportunity to reach a great number of potential consumers. Indeed, the bigger the web site, the more professional the company seems to be.

5. The use of the Internet has not been increasing dramatically in _____.
- A. schools B. offices C. theatres D. homes
6. All the following are true EXCEPT?
- A. The internet has been widely used over the past several years.
- B. The internet can bring us advantages and disadvantages.
- C. Advertisements on the internet are a good way to reach shoppers.
- D. If the website is big, it is likely that the company is big, too.
7. The word "revolutionized" in the first paragraph is closest in meaning to _____.
- A. completely changed the way that something is done
- B. enthusiastically helped doing something
- C. completely replaced something
- D. made something come to an end
8. The word "it" in the second paragraph refers to _____.
- A. business B. organization C. the Internet D. invention
