

After Phiona's victory in the tournament, what happens to her brother Brian?

How does this incident affect Phiona's and her family's life?

Phiona's sister Night has chosen a different way of life. What has she decided to do?

Besides improving her chess skills, what else does Phiona learn?

What is Phiona's special ability in chess?

Robert Katende says: "You belong where you believe you belong."
What does that quote express?

What do the "Pioneers" experience on their journey to Sudan?

When Phiona returns from Sudan, she looks around the place where her family lives.
What do you believe are her thoughts?

How has Phiona's behaviour changed after the return from Sudan?

What does Phiona's mother Harriet do in order to make some more money?

What does she buy for the money and why?

What promise does Phiona make to her mother?