More than ten years ago, in February 2001, the life of the Brazilian rock singer and songwriter Herbert Vianna (from the famous band called Paralamas) ⁽¹⁾ has changed / changed completely. While he ⁽²⁾ flew / was flying his aeroplane, he had an accident and consequently he ⁽³⁾ has lost / lost part of his brain capacity. He ⁽⁴⁾ has spent / spent a long time in hospital but he managed to survive. His family and friends were all the time with him trying to help him get better.

Herbert put a lot of effort into his recovery and in a short time he left hospital.

Even today, Herbert is an example of discipline and perseverance. He ⁽⁵⁾ has never stopped / never stopped working hard to recover his health from the time he left hospital. In the beginning, he could not remember people's faces or names, but after some time he even started playing the guitar and singing to the doctors, nurses and other patients! Only four months after the accident, Herbert ⁽⁶⁾ has gone / went onstage again to sing a song together with the Argentinian singer Fito Páez, his lifelong friend. After that, he ⁽⁷⁾ performed / has performed in many successful shows all over the world with his band Os Paralamas do Sucesso, and he has also started to drive his own car!

Herbert ⁽⁸⁾ is still using / still is using a wheelchair and has not stopped his treatment ⁽⁹⁾ yet / already. Most people believe that he ⁽¹⁰⁾ will not be / will be fully recovered very soon!
