

Present simple / present continuous – exercise 7

Use the verb in brackets to fill in one of the gaps in each example with the presente simple, and the other with the present continuous:

- a) She usually _____ jeans, but today she
_____ a long skirt. (wear)
- b) He _____ not _____ very much, but this week he _____ a lot for his exams. (study)
- c) She never _____ too fast, but now she _____ a bit fast because she's tired. (drive)
- d) We _____ wine today, but we normally _____ water. (drink)
- e) You _____ always _____ things! You're so clumsy! I never _____ anything. (break)
- f) He always _____ The Times while he's having breakfast, but today he _____ The Daily Telegraph. (read)

g) He _____ often late for school, but this month he _____ very punctual. (be)

h) We often _____ the bus, but today we
_____ the tube because we're in a hurry. (take)

i) I normally _____ for eight hours a day, but I _____ only seven this week because I have too much work. (sleep)

j) John _____ a comic at the moment. I _____ comics, too. (read)

k) There is a girl in that room. She _____ out of the window.
She often _____ at the birds in the park. (look)

l) I _____ the computer at the moment. I often _____ it to do my homework. (use)

m) Bob _____ not usually _____ lunch, but he
_____ a cheese sandwich now. (eat)