ESLWORKSHEETS

Future Tenses

Will or Going to?

1. Drag and drop each use next to the correct tense.

- We use will for:
- We use going to for:

Spontaneous decisions & predictions Plans

2. Choose the correct option to complete each sentence:
   a. I've been thinking and I _____ to Tina's party. I'm too tired.
   b. Next year, my friend and I _____ to Africa.
   c. You've got so many boxes to carry! I _____ you.
   d. I don't think the weather _____ nice when we go on holidays.
   e. By 2022 there _____ enough trees for the planet.

3. Fill in the blanks with the form of the verbs given (will or going to).
   a. Do you think scientists _____ (develop) enough technology to replace water?
   b. Don't shout! I know the washing machine isn't working. I _____ (call) the technician in the evening.
   c. -It's stopped raining!
      -Really? It wasn't supposed to! I _____ (not take) an umbrella, then
   d. I don't know what _____ (I-do) if I graduate as a lawyer.
   e. -Where's Sarah?
      -In Asia! She's travelling with her mom.
      - _____ (visit) China?
      - I don't think she's planned to!
   f. I _____ (not-ask) you for money. I've considered your offer well enough and I'm grateful, but I don't want to owe you anything.
   g. What's that noise outside? I _____ (call) the police!