

MIXED TENSES

WRITE THE VERBS IN BRACKETS IN THE CORRECT FORM.

- This sheep _____ (want) to move to a more respectable neighbourhood now.
- Frederic and Officer Gordon _____ (have) several serious discussions about punk music since Monday.
- Mice _____ (not be) very enthusiastic about owls.
- _____ the scouts _____ (be) punished in a minute?
- Angry Jacob _____ (shout) a lot of unkind words at Michael yesterday when he _____ (realise) it _____ (not be) Michael at all.
- Luke _____ (lose) his tooth in a battle of Stalingrad a long time ago. He _____ (be) still without his tooth as an old man now.
- Olive _____ (be) a devoted Sainsbury shopper before she met John. However since then she _____ (not shop) there.
- _____ the silly twins _____ (not think) about snatching some very delicious cakes from their mother's plate at the moment?
- The earl of Doom _____ (spend) his free time in a dark dungeon 300 years ago discussing generation problems with spiders.
- A farmer _____ just _____ (plant) some wheat.
- _____ camels _____ (not be) used to the Sahara desert since the old times.
- Harry _____ (gargle) (grgrati) some more in the future. This _____ (improve) his breath. So if you _____ (want) to improve your breath, _____ (gargle) Signal.
- Gerald _____ (not scratch) his itching (srbeč) beard yesterday at two.
- A poacher _____ (want) to catch a yummy chicken yesterday but Charles _____ (catch) him and _____ (teach) him a lesson.
- Judge Frederic _____ already _____ (send) him to prison.
- _____ Joan _____ (not have) her singing lesson since Gerry came home yesterday?
- George _____ (dream) about spending a holiday with Holly today.
- Brian and Bob _____ (not discuss) generation gap problems all the time.
- Mike and Paul _____ (not play) chess and the clarinet together yet.
- Kids _____ (have) to do these exercises yesterday whether they _____ (like) them or not.
- They _____ (be) very serious, _____ (not be) they? 