

READING CHECK

Correct six more mistakes in the chapter summary.

Lip-lip is White Fang's greatest ~~friend~~ ^{enemy} and White Fang learns to fight with him. In the summer the Indians move their camp to go hunting. White Fang runs away from them. After some time he feels thirsty so he goes back, but the Indian camp isn't there. He goes along by the side of a great road and in the end he finds the Indian camp in a new place. Grey Beaver is angry to see him. In December, Grey Beaver goes on a journey with his son and his wife. White Fang pulls a sled for them. When a boy hits White Fang for eating some meat on the ground, White Fang bites the boy's foot. Later White Fang helps Grey Beaver's brother when some boys begin to attack him.

WORD WORK

Use the words in the tepee to complete the sentences on page 25.

