

Practice for the fifth Reading's Project 3rd grade

Activity #1: complete the sentences by using the vocabulary words of the reading "A variety of life in Madagascar":

- soil - food chain - lizard - climate - hotspot - species - rainforest - endangered

1. A place where many endangered animals live is called a _____.
2. _____ is the typical weather conditions for a region.
3. It is the top layer of ground that plants grow in; earth or dirt: _____.
4. A _____ is a forest with a lot of trees in an area where it rains frequently.
5. When there are species of animal or plants in danger of disappearing, we call them: _____.
6. It is a reptile with short legs and a long tail: _____.
7. _____ is a way of looking at which things depend on each other as food.
8. _____ are a group of living things with the same characteristics.

Activity #2: write down a summary about the reading "A variety of life in Madagascar":

